Dear Bob;

It has been almost a year now since we have completed our new $8.3 million Bethlen Nursing Home in Ligonier, Pennsylvania. Our residents, visitors, staff, and Board members recognize the beauty and functionality of the new nursing home. We have had so many compliments, and the staff greatly appreciates the quality of construction.

Our Bethlen Communities board found the project to be a daunting challenge. Most of our Board members did not have any construction experience, and they were apprehensive when we began this project. From the beginning, you put our minds at ease, and confidence in Mistick construction grew with each meeting and with the completion of each phase. Even those with construction experience were impressed with your attention to detail and uncompromising pursuit of perfection. Our Building Committee was particularly impressed with your ability to stay within budget, including requested changes, and still deliver the project on schedule.

It is always a challenge to deliver a significant building project. So many things can happen along the way. Mistick Construction joined us in this challenge, even before we signed a contract, and remains available for any questions or concerns, even after a year from the completion date. You stayed with us from the early stages of design through completion of construction, more than three years. Your team was very professional and very cordial, and we greatly appreciate the opportunity to have worked with Leo Makosky, Bud Wilson, Tom Woodward and the other fine people from Mistick Construction. We also very much appreciate your personal time and contributions, Bob.

It is not often that a principal will contribute as much time and personal attention to the project as you did. Thank you.

We will call on you whenever we plan to undertake a new project, and hope that you will be available. On behalf of the Bethlen Home Building Committee, Mr. Michael Paull, Mr. Laszlo Lipoczky, Ms. Rita Boynton, Mr. George Dozsa, and me, thank you for your professionalism, dedication, and friendship during our time together.

May God Bless you with continued success and prosperity.

Yours In the Service of the Lord,
